BIBLE STUDY

This month we focus on Adventist Fundamental Belief #28:

THE NEW EARTH

On the new earth, in which righteousness dwells, God will provide an eternal home for the redeemed and a perfect environment for everlasting life, love, joy, and learning in His presence. For here God Himself will dwell with His people, and suffering and death will have passed away. The great controversy will be ended, and sin will be no more. All things, animate and inanimate, will declare that God is love; and He shall reign forever. Amen.

(Isa. 35; 65:17-25; Matt. 5:5; 2 Peter 3:13; Rev. 11:15; 21:1-7; 22:1-5.)

At Jesus' Second Coming, the believers who are still alive will be joined by the believers God will raise from the dead. And everyone will be taken to heaven with Him (1 Thessalonians 4:17). We will stay in heaven with Jesus for 1000 years (the Millennium), where we can learn directly from Him why everything turned out the way it did. After that, the earth will be cleansed with a quick, purifying fire. Satan and his angels, along with anyone who chose not to accept Christ's sacrifice, will cease to exist. Evil and sin will be no more.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Happy Sabbath to you today.

Whatever challenge you're facing, remember that nothing is too hard for God. Talk to him about it. Tell Him what you are worried about, then leave it with Him and watch what happens. God knows the issues you're facing and he says to you: 'I have grace for all that you are encountering and far more than you will ever experience.'

God accepts you exactly as you are. He wants to position you for healing and He says, 'Let me show you how to be well. You need care! I will help you and I know the right path to take – follow me.'

God is your nurturing caregiver and wise guide – ask Him to provide the spiritual nourishment and help you as you worship Him today..

BIBLE VERSE of the WEEK John 3:14-15

'And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.'

CHURCH CLEANING

Join us for a general clean of various areas within the church! We will be focusing on the general areas, main rooms, and storage spaces to ensure our church remains a welcoming and clean environment for all.

Details:

- 🗑️ All participants are kindly asked to bring their masks and gloves for safety.
- 🗑️ Families with children are welcome to join, but we request that parents/guardians supervise their little ones during the cleaning process.
- 🗑️ Please dress comfortably and appropriately for cleaning tasks, including closed-toe shoes.
- 🗑️ Reminder: Any items left on the church premises will be removed, so please take them home with you today.

Health and Safety Guidelines:

- 🗑️ We encourage all participants to adhere to basic health and safety guidelines during the cleaning process, including proper lifting techniques and caution around cleaning chemicals.
- 🗑️ If you have any specific health concerns or limitations, please let us know so we can accommodate accordingly.

Lets Honor Our Church:

Cleaning the church is not just a task but an honor to beautify our place of worship and fellowship. Together, we can ensure that our church remains a sanctuary for all who enter its doors.

Thank you for your co-operation and dedication to maintaining the cleanliness of our church community!

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRIES

Use Well The Talent of Speech

You are fairer than the sons of men; grace is poured upon Your lips; therefore God has blessed You forever. Psalm 45:2, NKJV.

By diligent effort all may acquire the power to read intelligibly, and to speak in a full, clear, round tone, in a distinct and impressive manner. By doing this we may greatly increase our efficiency as workers for Christ.

Every Christian is called to make known to others the unsearchable riches of Christ; therefore all should seek for perfection in speech. They should present the Word of God in a way that will commend it to the hearers. God does not design that His human channels shall be uncouth. It is not His will that human beings shall belittle or degrade the heavenly current that flows through them to the world.

We should look to Jesus, the perfect pattern; we should pray for the aid of the Holy Spirit, and in His strength we should seek to train every organ for perfect work.

Especially is this true of those who are called to public service. Ministers and teachers should all bear in mind that they are giving to the people a message that involves eternal interests. The truth spoken will judge them in the great day of final reckoning. And with some souls the manner of the one delivering the message will determine its reception or rejection. Then let the Word be so spoken that it will appeal to the understanding and impress the heart. Slowly, distinctly, and solemnly should it be spoken, yet with all the earnestness which its importance demands.

The right culture and use of the power of speech has to do with every line of Christian work; it enters into the home life, and into all our relations with one another. We should accustom ourselves to speak in pleasant tones, to use pure and correct language, and words that are kind and courteous. Sweet, kind words are as dew and gentle showers to the soul. The Scripture says of Christ that grace was poured into His lips that He might “know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary” (Isaiah 50:4).—Christ's Object Lessons, 335, 336
